Photographs Permission

We are very proud of all that students achieve at Crown Hills, both in their academic studies and during extracurricular activities such as sporting events and those to do with drama and music.

Students are often invited to participate in trips out of College and in events outside of the normal classroom experience.

All of these activities are valuable because they broaden students' horizons, raise their aspirations and enrich their education.

We sometimes like to capture these experiences on camera and video to share across the College via notice boards and the newsletter so that all those involved with the College know what is happening at Crown Hills.

Photographs taken and videos made are for educational purposes only and to present a good image of Crown Hills as a place where students can thrive and learn. Just occasionally the Leicester Mercury may also take photographs of students at Crown Hills to accompany a good news story about the College.
